Patterson is community supported, traveling year-round on the West Coast of the USA, and in Hawaii, Europe and Scandinavia. Her music sings vitality into our revolution of the heart! As Diane's song High Sierra Morning says, 'Evolutionary breezes scooping up the prayers we make, doorways open to other ways, and dragonfly say, this could be a good time.'

Diane's new CD, Build a Bridge, tells a story of her travels, loves and losses, and peaceful activism, weaving community heart connection and spreading earth care, people care, fair share, abundance by design, ancient permaculture, honoring nature's ways and indigenous wisdom. Bring your own indigenous self and your own ancient wisdom to be and share!

As the Hopi say, 'The time of the lone wolf is over.' It is time to come together, work together, co-create and cooperate.
